Withholding Information

Under federal and state laws, you may choose to not have taxes withheld from certain life insurance payments, or withheld at a certain percentage or amount from such payments. For either option, you are still responsible for any income tax due on the taxable portion of the payment. You may be subject to tax penalties under the Estimated Tax Payment Rules if your payment of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not sufficient. For Non-Resident Aliens, federal income tax will be withheld at the applicable rate unless you provide a compliant form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E and any supporting documentation required.
