NOTICE TO LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OWNERS AND ANNUITY CONTRACT HOLDERS CURRENTLY RESIDING OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

Due to the global COVID-19 pandemic, the United States Postal Service has restricted mail service to and from certain countries. As a result, you may not receive some mailed correspondence from Lincoln, including:

- 1) Administrative correspondence
- 2) Grace and lapse notices
- 3) Prospectuses and prospectus supplements
- 4) Annual reports
- 5) Annual statements of account
- 6) Quarterly statements and
- 7) Confirmation statements

As soon the United States Postal Service lifts the mail restriction on your country of residence, Lincoln will send all correspondence that was unable to be delivered to you. For the most current status of your country of residence visit the United States Postal Service website:

<https://about.usps.com/newsroom/service-alerts/international/welcome.htm>.

Because the information contained in our correspondence is time sensitive, and important in understanding the status of your policy or contract, we encourage you to contact us to arrange electronic delivery of correspondence. We are available Monday through Friday, between 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Eastern, at 800-487-1485 or 336-691-3000, option 1.
